Waitman Thompson for Killing his wife----Evidences of Brutality.

Reported specially for the News. WILSON, May 14th, 1878. Trial of Thompson progressing rapid-y. One hundred and thirty witnesses present. Great interest is manifested. Court house and grounds crowded. The occused shows little or no emotion. estimony of witnesses examined yesterday and to-day, up to closing of the mails, is given below.

FIRST DAY-FINDING THE BODY. Haywood Toler, (colored) said: I saw Mrs. Thompson Monday 8th October, 1877, after sunset and in the woods: lived }-mile from where she was killed; I was driving a wagon when I discovered the body. The mules became frightened. I then went to Levi Strickland's and told him of it. I told Thomas Vinson about it, and went back to the place. It was a dark, cloudy evening; the path where she was found in, was cut out for carts and wagons, and it was about two hundred yards from the big road. Green Toler, (colored) said: I was going after wood; saw a woman lying dead on the path; I was in the hind part of the wagon with Haywood Toler. When I saw the body I said, "Lord, uncle Haywood, here is a dead man;" the mules run; there was a bundle in the path; we went home, took out the mules and then went to tell Mr. Levi Strickland and John Vinson; this was between sunset and dark. CORONER'S STATEMENT.

Dr. Geo. L. Kirby said: I am coroner of Wayne county; was called to the body of the deceased. When I reached the spot I found a considerable crowd assembled. The body was lying near the path, face down; a little blood on her head. About fifteen steps from the body lay a shawl and shoes. She had a dark dress on. There were wounds on back and side of her head; there was blunt instrument; might have been with a club. I saw a lightwood limb which was said to have been used. I had Mr. Thompson arrested and held and come to Goldsboro next morning, Order. and he did come to the Courthouse next day, promptly.

DR. MOORE, MEDICAL EXPERT. Dr. W. H. Moore: I live in Golds boro, and have lived there since 1834; I was called to examine the body by Dr. Kirby, (Coroner.) I examined the wounds, and I think she died from those wounds. * * *. Mrs. Thompson weighed about 175 or 180 pounds. There were bruises on her knee which seemed to have been caused by falling on something; the wounds on the head must have been made with a blunt instrument, probably with the eye of a batchet.

CONDUCT OF THE ACCUSED OVER HIS WIFE'S BODY.

Levi Strickland : I heard of the murder on the 8th of October, 1877. Haywood Toler told me of it; the woods were thick. John Winstead and myself were the first white persons to reach the body; we recognized it as Mrs. Celia Thompson; it was then 8 o'clock, p, m. There was a slight rain falling; we placed a sheet over her, and some of the persons present remained all night. I saw Mr. Thompson there that night; we had fire in the path where the body was lying. Mr. Thompson came up with several others; he passed by the fire and went to where his wife was lying, and fell down by her; he called her name, "Celia! Celia!! Celia!!! I was in ten feet of her, and some one asked me to take him (Thompson) away from her; he then went and sat down by a pine tree and placed his head between his knees. John Vinson called-His evidence was about the same as Strickland's. He having went to the scene of the murder with S. at 6:15 p. m.

Court adjourned until Tuesday 9 a. m. SECOND DAY - TUESDAY - MORNING BESSION.

Mrs. Malinda Waters, said, I helped to dress Mrs. Thompson; it was about noon on Tuesday; her head was bady bruised, and there were live things n the wounds. ABUSES HIS WIFE.

Webb Hill, said: One year, last October, I and brother were hauling wood; when coming out into the path near the county road; I saw Waitman Thompson and his wife together. Thompson was cursing her. Mrs. Thompson was going to her father's. Thompson told her to go back home, "God damn you, go back." She said "I shan't do He was about 50 yards from her then. I stopped a few minutes. Thompson asked me to drink. He was under the influence of liquor and had a stick. This was about ? of a mile from James Handley's house.

BOISTEROUS WHEN DRUNK.

Matthew Faircloth said : About two years ago I heard Thompson speaking about a mule that he had traded, and that Mr. Daniel (Thompson's father-inlaw) wanted to get the mule back for his own use. He abused Daniel and Mr. Hines. Said that Mr. Hines had used his property for his own use, and he of abusing a good many people. I have beard him brag a good deal about killing negroes; told me he had killed two at one time, and could show me where they were buried. When sober he never said anything unkind about people, but Ransom Garriss said : In 1870 I lived well together. Thompson would get on sprees, come home and abuse his wife. She would run off and leave him. This happened a number of times while I stayed there; sometimes in the day, and then a ain at night. I never saw him whip his wife. I did hear her scream one night, and went in to see what was the matter, and he had her down on the side of the bed, like as if he intended to slap her. She was begging him to turn her loose. Thompson was balf drunk at the time. When he was not drinking he and his wife got along tolerably well. My wife is a cousin of the deceased.

DRIVEN FROM HOME.

BEATING HIS WIFE. Luke Uzzell, (colored): I lived near with Thompson and wife. The fighting would take place at night generally. could hear Mrs. Thompson call and ask her husband why he was beating her. I saw them frequently in day time, and they seemed to be very loving together.

SAVAGE BRUTALITY. A. Franklin said: I worked at Waitman Thompson's three weeks, about six or seven years ago. What time I staid there he was drinking; at times he was violent, and rash in his family. but when sober was kind, &c. On one occasion I and Mr. Thompson went to Goldsboro together, and got a jng of m. I went to bed, soon after I heard his wife call, "Oh! Mr. Franklin;"

when I went into the room, Thompson had his shot gun in his hands. Mrs. Thompson begged me to take the gun away from him, that he had snapped two or three caps in attempting to shoot her. I took the gun away from him; it was loaded; I took it to my room, and next morning shot it off, killed a sparrow hawk; after leaving their room I could hear a noise like he (Thompson) was spanking bis wife. She would cry out, "Oh! Mr. Thempson, please stop." I think he slapped her three or four times; next morning they appear-

A New Supply

ATLANTA CONFERENCE.

Sunday Services - Governor Colquitt-Monday's Proceedings -- A New Conference -- Local Preachers.

From our special Reporter. ATLANTA, GA., May 18th, 1878. ELEVENTH DAY.

The second Sabbath of the General Conference dawned upon the city of Atlanta in great beauty and natural loveliness, and early in the day the whiskey; we returned home about 2 a. streets of the city were thronged with people wending their way to the dif-ferent houses of worship, where they enjoyed the great privilege of listening to some of the most gifted preachers of the gospel in the Southern States.

All the Bishops and about seventy clerical members of the Conference preached in and near the city. We have heard from a great many of these sermons, but of course, we cannot report them. At 11 a. m., we attended the First Methodist Church, and listened to a most excellent sermon by Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh, of Louis-ville, Ky. He is a grand old man, and a grand preacher of the gospel. His sermon yesterday was full of beauty, richness and gospel power. At 4 p. m., we had the pleasure of attending a Sunday School mass meeting in the First Methodist Church. Addresses were delivered by several distinguished gentlemen.

GOV. COLQUITT SPEAKS.

At the Sunday School mass meeting, mentioned above, the audience sent up a request for Governor Colquitt, wh was present, to make some remarks. In answer to this call the Governor came forward and made a most impressive speech. He is evidently a learned and influential man and, above all, he is a deeply pious man. We have the pleasacquaintance with him, and as we listened to his remarks, breathing the piety of his soul, we could but wish that the Governors of all our States, and every other public official would consecrate their talent and influence to God, as does the present popular and influential Governor of teorgia.

At night we attended the First Presbyterian Church, and had the pleasure of listening to an instructive and impressive sermon by Dr. Wilson, of North Carolina.

MONDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Conference convened at the stated

time, and was opened with religious services by Dr. E. E. Wiley, President of Emory Henry College of Virginia. Bishop Doggett presided. Several resolutions were presented and referred to appropriate commit-

It was resolved that after next Saturday, the 18th inst., the Conference o'clock.

A NEW CONFERENCE FORMED. The Committee on Boundaries reported in favor of forming a new Conference in Montana Territory, and the report was discussed at length by Rev. David Morton, Dr. A. R. Winfield, Dr. McFerrin, Dr. A. S. Andrews and others. The report was adopted and the new Conference formed.

PROPOSED BOUNDARY CHANGE IN TEXAS. Dr. R. Alexander, of Texas, made a motion to change the boundaries of his Conference so as to take four counties out of another Conference in Texas and put them into his Conference. This brought to the floor several members of the Conference, from which he wanted to take these four counties, and a lively contest ensued, which resulted in voting down Dr. Alexander's motion.

LOCAL PREACHERS. Dr. Miller, of Kentucky, introduced motion as a substitute for the report of the Committee on Revisals, that every Quarterly Conference be allowed to assign to its local preachers a field of work for each year, and the doctor spoke at length in its favor. Pending he discussion the hour for adjournment arrived, and the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Bishop Doggett. All the morning session was consumed in discussing the questions noted

Church of North Carolina, and known to nearly everybody in the State, was in the Conference rooms on yesterday.

The Confederate Soldier.

Washington Capital. The Hop. Alfred M. Waddell's address on "The Confederate Soldier," before five thousand ex-Union soldiers, at Steinway Hall, was a brilliant success. The characterization was good, and the political analysis bold and incisive. This is his sketch of a typical character : "I was confronted by a person about four and a half feet high, with huge epaulets and bullet buttons liberally distributed over a home-spun uniform, who desired to know something of my personal history, and expressed a desperate determination to devour an unlimited number of Abolitionists. I escaped this terrible cannibal, but am rejoiced to know that he served his country faithfully during the entire war as assistant cook to a wagon train, and immediately upon its termination joined the brotherhood of statesmen who panted for the blood of rebels.'

And answering an often put question he says that the reason why a State which opposed secession afterwards did its best against the Union, is simply because they did not believe in the right of using armed force to hold a State it she did secede. The Southerner loved the Union, but thought his first duty was to his State, "and hence the Confederate soldier.'

The National Party. Philadelphia Times. The National, Greenback, Labor, or

these several names, but with the same general purposes, is making considera-ble headway in New England; enough, indeed, to give the old organizations and especially the Republicans, a good deal of a scare. In Massachusetts there is is an organization that seems to be effective, embracing working clubs not only in Boston, Lynn and Lowell, but in a score or so of such towns as Northampton. Marblehead, Natick and Chicopee. Wendell Phillips, however, is one of the shining lights of the new movement, which is not an augury of success, and General Butler is cautious-publicans, having been swept away by the greenback epidemic. In N. Hamp-shire local organization is going on with a view to the formation of clubs in every town and school district. Every county was represented at the recent conference of the leaders of the new party. Less has been done in Vermont, but clubs have been started here and there, and it is expected that a State convention will be called. These straws show which way the wind is blowing. It is not that the people love the new party more, but the old parties less. There are a great many dissatisfied voters, who have grown tired of the old issues and more-tired of the old leaders, and whether the discontented elements shall crystalize into the National party will depend upon the degree of wisdom shown by those who have undertaken to put #### the new concern on its legs. COMPLAINT COLUMN.

A Deep. Heavy Growl.

When David Royster, Esq, late member of the Board of Aldermen (Uncle Dave we called him) resigned his place in that body in favor of Dr. Hogg, we, the Democratic people, or probably more properly, we, a large portion of the Democratic people, blamed him. But if Alderman John C. Blake will, after his halt from the Democratic party and his bolt from the Democratic party, and his affiliation with the Radicals, headed by Mr. Altred Magnin, kindly rid the party of his presence, we will cheerfully take Dr. Hogg, or any other good Demo-erat, in his place. In saying this we are not think it right or proper that this city should, after all our sacrifices and labors, be turned over to the Radical party to please any one man, or any set of men, who, from purely personal and mercenary motives, and to advance the interests of their friends or relations, make us catspaws to pull out the heated chestnuts, that they make a full meal from the luscious kernel while leaving us the husk.

"Let justice be done if the heavens fall." "Consistency is a jewel," Alderman. Is it consistent, is it proper to sit in the Board and vote for officers nominated in caucus, and then nullify the acts of said caucus in this extraordinary manner? We ask this as honest men and good Democrats. We pause for a reply.

With respect for the Board of Aldermen, due by every good Democrat, and without reflection upon them as a body, or Mr. Blake as a man, Respectfully, VERY MANY CITIZENS. May 14, 1878.

ONSLOW COUNTY.

Visiting an Old Home—Cotton Culture—County Matters—

Politics--- Health and Crops. Correspondence of the Naws. CATHARINE LAKE, May 11, 1878.

Called from "home and all its pleasures," to attend the old home court, I trust I shall not unpardonably invade the rights or privileges of your Onslow correspondent, in reporting something of this people. One who makes periodical visits is quicker to discover changes than the constant observer.

THE CULTIVATION OF COTTON. I am reluctant to note the backward movement of old friends, under the persistent cultivation of cotton. Farmers said they could not make it for less than thirteen cents, but had to sell it for less, and now fear they are making this crop for less than eight cents per pound. They say they must have so much money, and the lower the price the more they must make to meet the demands of creditors. The prospect is good at this early date, the Spring being unusually forward in all respects.

THE COURT.

It must be hoped the morals of the county is improved. The State docket only required parts of two days for its final disposal and the grand jury was only two days in attendance on the Court. The civil docket was relieved of some chronic cases of anti-bellum oritake Dr. Hogg, or any other good Demo-erat, in his place. In saying this we are not actuated by any opposition to Mr. Blake, or any friendship for the parties he has opposed in his extraordinary resolutions in the Board of Aldermen on the night of May 13th inst. But we love the Democratic party, and we do him just to get clear of him. More age and collision with the world may give him that stability which he now so much needs in the administration of law, equity and justice. POLITICAL MATTERS. The people of Onslow are ever awake to any movement on the Democratic line. The meeting this week was well attended and everything moved in harmony. Instructions to Congressional delegates to vote for J. G. Scott instead of their worthy and efficient representa-tive, Hon. A. M. Waddell, are no doubt at variance with the sentiment as also the best interests of the whole State, which now looks upon Col. Waddell as one of the ablest and most useful representatives in the federal Congress. The meeting was a upit for Chief Justice Smith, and Hon. M. E. Manly for Associate on the Supreme bench. Many of our people had never heard of Judge Smith, but like the Lincoln county Dutchman, when told that Gov. Vance had appointed him, were content to endorse anything Vance had proposed. THE SOLICITORSHIP. A wonder may be found in Onslow county having three attorneys and not a candidate for the Solicitorship. Mr. Hill--Delegates Appointed to J. D. Kerr, of Goldsboro, made his first County Meeting of the 18th. visit to this county this week and made such an impression as will probably place the delegation among his supporters for that place. HEALTH AND CROPS. The health of this section is generally good, the weather fine, crops promising and, now Court is over, the people return to their work, and your correspondent, taking Greeley's advice, goes

THE press dispatches announce the adjournment of the Southern Baptist Convention, at Nashville.

As WILL be seen by special dispatch to the NEWS, the General Conference, in session at Atlanta, decides against division of the North Carolina Confer-

It begins to look now as if the long predicted new or third party had been born; and its name is the 'National.' A daily organ, called the National Standard, makes its appearance at Washington City, this week.

THE Greensboro Patriot, very good authority, says, "If the election of the next United States Senator rested with the Democratic masses Zeb. Vance would have ninety-nine out of a hundred, and that hundredth man would want to be Senator himself.' We can well understand now why those who oppose Gov. Vance's election to the United States Senate, as well as those who helped to thwart the Democratic party of North Carolina in 1872, are so anxious to keep back expressions of opinion about the U.S. Senatorship by the Democratic masses.

Some astounding frauds are alleged to have been unearthed in the government printing office at Washington, principally in the purchase of paper. But this is only another illustration of the bent of American genius. We can beat the world in these sort of things; for example, take the larceny of the Presidency. In the light of that historic and transcendent theft, the government printer doubtless fancied him self entitled to the whole public print ing establishment, including the back volumes of the Congressional Globe, Patent Office and Agricultural Department Reports.

THE Greensboro Patriot thinks the people are not going to make the Sena torial contest "an issue in the selection of their representatives in the Legislature." While it may be wise, wherever our party is weak, to avoid any issue that would produce the least distraction in our ranks, there certainly can be no harm in the people of any county declaring their choice for United States Senator. The choice of the Democratic party must, and no doubt will be, the successor to Senator Merrimon. What ever tends to make manifest that choice, is in itself a good thing viewed from a Democratic standpoint, and cannot be objected to upon any grounds that do not bear the impress of absurdity upon their very face.

North Carolina A Republican

State!!! It seems that the Washington Republican has been cataloguing North Carolina as a Republican State! It has the temerity to assert that the elections of 1876 were carried against the Republicans by Democratic force and through Republican fear. Two facts refute this falsehood :- There is no State in the Union where freedom of elections prevails more completely than in North Carolina, when not influenced, as in the recent past, by Federal officials and U. S. troops; and at the elections in 1876 the Republicans polled a heavier vote, by many thousands, than was ever before returned by that party. Whenever the Federal power does not usurp the ballot box in North Carolina the elec tions are always free, and voters untrammelled. We of this State pride ourselves on our tolerance of political opinion, and we take pleasure in according to every man his full, free political choice in all public matters. We pity the prostitution of that public sentiment the Republican either represent or influences.

A New Crusade of Hate. The South must be prepared to withstand a new crusade by the apostles o hate in the North. The Republicans will spare no efforts to carry the elec tion in 1880. Grant is to be put for ward. The horoscope of the politica future discloses no more certain event. He is to be supported by a grand on slaught upon the "Confederate power." The Northern heart is again to be fired. Angus Cameron, United States Senator from Wisconsin, leads off in the North American Review, with an article. which, for pure cussedness, has had no superior in the periodical literature of the day. He undertakes to show that the success of the Democratic party means the ascendancy of the South in the General Government. He says. among other things, "I do not say the South should not rule the Republic solely or chiefly because its leaders were traitors to the Republic. That, surely, is a sufficient reason. A protest against day at Goldsboro. Arrangements were the rule of the ruiners is the dictate of made for special reports of the pro-

TUPPER-when it is contended that we have not condoned the colossal crime of WEDNESDAY ...... MAY 15, 1878 the nineteenth century until we shall have subjected ourselves to the rule of its chief confederates." This reduced means that "the triumph of any party but the Radical party, is the triumph of traitors," to quote the language of a contemporary. When we consider that the Radical party is chiefly distinguished for its robberies of the government, we may not feel very bad at being designated by them collectively or by any one of them individually, as "traitors." In the Cameronian vocabulary, "confederate" and "traiter" are synonymous terms.

The Courier Journal says on this part of the letter: "All this is meant to goad the South and inflame the North. A few pen strokes might easily topple down the theory it sets up. Under Southern statesmanship the country grew great and potent. Whilst the South was taking care of the Government, the North was feathering its nest. The last fifteen years of corruption tell the tale of Republican ascendency, as against fifty years of Demoeratic progress, purity and glory. But the animus of the writer who put his blackguard nature into dublous English in order that knaves and fools may get a cue for renewed malevolence, shows the store which experienced rascals set upon questions of even vulgar sentiment."

The Presidential Title.

At last the electoral frauds in Florida and Louisiana are to be investigated. The lid is to be torn from the Republican iniquities practised in those States in the winter of 1876-'77, and the full. free light of a congressional inquisition is to be let in on the dark deeds which lie about the tap root of the Presidential title. We take it for granted the resolution sprung in the House Monday will pass. It failed then for lack of a quorum. When it comes up for final action it is very certain that a quorum will be present, and the resolution can be pressed through without the aid of a single Republican vote. The Democratic course of action is clearly defined, and they have determined with singular don with the seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and Bay Line Steamers via baltimore, to and from all points North west, and with Petersburg, Kichmond, and Washington City, to and from all points Washington City, to and from all points with the Raileigh and Augusta Air-Line to Haywood and Fayetteville, Hamlet, Charlotte, Wilmington, and all points South.

JOHN C. WINDER, m16-tf General Superintendent. quorum. When it comes up for final and they have determined with singular unanimity to pursue it to the bitter end.

The determination of the Democratic members of Congress to enter into an investigation of these frauds is somewhat surprising, in view of the receninterviews published by the New York Herald, wherein nearly every Democratic Congressman expressed himself against the adoption of any proceedings likely to call in question Hayes' title to the Presidency. But it must be remembered that at the time those interviews were obtained, McLin, the penitent hairman of the Florida Returning Board, had not made his startling confession. It is upon the allegations contained in his statement that the resolution for investigation is based, the Blair memorial furnishing the pretext for the inauguration of the movement.

The time has come for the prosecution of an enquiry into the means by which Tilden was robbed of his majorities in the States of Louisiana and Florida. There is no danger now that the peace of the country would be in the least disturbed by the investigations proposed. Indeed, the frauds have been so clearly established by the newspapers that an examination into the matter by a committee would hardly cause more than a faint ripple of excitement. The revelations such a committee would bring out would not possess even the charm of

The question of expediency being set led, no good objections can be raised against the adoption of Mr. Potter's resolution. It is right that the great outrage perpetrated by the Republicans should be fully and clearly exposed, in an official, authoritative and lasting way. None but those who are parties to the crime, and those of their house-hold of political faith, will offer resist-the south, and A. & C. Air-Line for Atlanta and the south west. ance. A stout, bitter fight may be expected in Congress; and the contest on Potter's resolution be prolonged. The object of this investigation is not simply to collect into durable form the evidence of frauds in the stolen States. It said that the complicity of President Hayes and Secretary Sherman will be clearly established. If such shall be the case, the impeachment of both these high officials is among the possibilities of the immediate future. Indeed, that would be a logical sequence of the investigation. But, whether in case of the impeachment and removal of Mr. Hayes, Mr. Tilden would be seated as President, is a question to be considered. We are disposed to think that Mr Tilden could secure the Presidency only through judicial proceedings instituted under and by virtue of the saving clause in the Electoral Commission law. Should the proposed investigation result in an invalidation of the title of President Hayes, it would also destroy the title of Vice-President Wheeler; and under Article 11, Section l, of the Constitution of the United States, the duty would devolve upon Congress of declaring what officer shall then act as President. But we drift into a useless vein of speculation. It is idle to count Democratic chickens before our legal eggs, just about to undero incubation in Congress, are hatched. It is enough to know that the frauds are to be dragged to the light before a Congressional Committee, and that the Republican party with all its reeking iniquities is to be once more pilloried in history. Mr. Tilden's right to the Presidency will be established beyond all controversy; but whether he can re### cover his stolen seat remains to be seen State Medical Society.

Bishop McCoskry, of Michigan has wisely withdrawn his resignation of the jurisdiction of his late diocese. In his letter to Bishop Smith be assigns as the cause "painful events of recent occurrence." He adds a solemn and em-phatic denial of all slanderous charges against him, and concludes by saying that this action is taken with a view to expediting investigation and the vindication of his character. So soon as this end shall be attained his resignation will be renewed, because of his increasing physical infirmities.

Can never be possessed by those whose digestive and assimilative organs are in a state of chronic disorder. Weak stomachs make weak nerves. To restore vigor and quietuse to the latter, the first must be invigorated and regulated. The ordinary sedatives may tranquilize the nerves for a while, but they can never like Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, remove the causes of nervous debitity. That superb invigorant and corrective of disordered conditions of the alimentary organs has elso the effect of imparting tone to the nerves. The deficate tissues of which they are constituted, when weakened in consequence of impoverishment of the blood, resulting from imperfect digestion and assimilation, draw strength from the fund of virality developed in the system by the Bitters, which impacts the required impetus to the nutritive functions of the stomach, enriches the circulation, and gives tone as d regularity to the secretive and evacuative organs. ## Postponed.

The nic-ric of the Sunday School of the Church of the Good Snepherd, announced for Wednesday, will be postponed until some day next week.

The Baptist Pic nic.

Owing to the exceeding inclemency of the weather the pic-nic of the Baptist Sunday School is postponed until Friday morning.

Board of Aldermen.

The Board met at 8:30 last evening. All the members were present. Of motion of Alderman Hardie, the Board adjourned to Friday evening.

The State Normal School. It has been suggested as a desirable

indeed necessary thing, that every teacher of our county who can possibly do so should attend the session of this School at the State University this summer. Those who, wishing to go, feel the burden of expense to be heavy, can have many obstacles to their attendance removed by corresponding with President Battie, at Chapel Hill.

The distance from Kaleigh is 534 miles, schedule time 15 nours, and return tickets, good 1111 November, $30.

Caution.

There are two post offices in this State about which there are frequent mistakes, namely: Manly, Ashe county, and Many Station, Union county, on the R. & A. A. Line Kailroad. All letters addressed to "Maniy, N. C." go to Ashe county. The post office name of the one in Union county, is "Many blation." A great many letters are rost by being sent to the Maniy post office in Ashe county—as our citizens have little or no correspondence with Ashe county, but a large correspondence with "Maniy Station," on the R. & A. A. Libe Kampad.

The Bingham School.

So firm a hold has thir school upon the regard of the people of our bute, that we all are glad to hear it kindly spoken of. In a late issue of the Petersburg Index-Appeal we notice the tol. lowing remarks about the school : "The Binguan School retains its pre-eminence in the cause of education. Y. M. C. A. State Convention. At the first annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association, held at Charlotte, in April, 1877, an executive committee was appointed to have general charge of the organization. This committee now call the second annual convention of the Y. M. C. A. of the State of North Carolina, and have appointed Friday, June 14th, as the time, and Greensboro as the place for holding said convention. The business session will continue during Friday and issued to Sam'l White & Co., Baltimore, Saturday, and on Sunday, following, devotional exercises will be held under the auspices of the convention. The members of the Greensboro Association have given a cordial invitation to assemble there and assure a hearty welcome. It is intended to have every association in the State represented by one or more members. The committee request that the names of all delegates who expect to attend the convention be promptly forwarded to T. M. Pittman, Secretary, Charlotte, N. C., in order that arrangements may be made for their entertain-ment. Application has been made to the various railroad officials in the State for a reduction of fare to delegates attending the convention. Parties desiring information as to the railroad rates, or on any other subject, will please address the Secretary at Charlotte, N. C.

A New Industry.

The mole has ever been regarded by farmers as a pest, something to be "sat ' and crushed out of existence, but times change, and now the little animal's acquaintance is cultivated by at least one of our agriculturists. Mr. Jno. G. Williams, the ever genial president of the State National Bank, him of the perennial youth, called us in yesterday, and informed us of the fact that at his farm, near this city, he was raising moles for their skins. The results of this branch of industry were apparent when he showed a great number of porte-monnaies, made of the the production of a city worker in met-als, so that the whole affair is Carolinian in its get up. The purses are neatly made, and compare favorably with those made of a sow's ear. The owner of the farm proposes to erect a factory and engage in the manufacture of these necessaries. They are so made as to always bear the semblance of being well-filled, and that in these times is no small consideration. All the friends of Mr. Williams who call at the bank up to noon to morrow, will be given one of the packet-books. After this date hey are to be sold.

After Many Days--Honesty.

The possessor of a line of telephone was robbed of about 100 feet of the cord. by an urchin, who, climbing into a tree to which it was fastened, cut it with his little knife. Then of course he fled with his prize. He had, however, unknown to himself, been espied and his theft noticed. Two weeks passed by, and one morning, just as the first sun-beams saluted the earth, the door bell of the telephonist's residence tinkled softly. The maid opened the door, when to her surprise entered the roguish small boy, and holding out in his hand the identical string stolen, said, "I've brought it back." Wonderingly the maid carried the twine to her master, when he at once recognized it as the missing property. The interence is that the youth had by some means become impressed with an idea of his offence, had probably been to Sunday school. This diminutive parrative is, however, an "ower true tale," and not told in aid of those christianizing institutions, but shows what beautiful things contrition, repentance and honest confession are. No copyright of this story is held, so it may be re-told.

Flowers for the Portsmouth

For several years past our ladies and citizens have contributed flowers to decorate the graves of the fallen heroes who lie buried in the Confederate Cemetery at Portsmouth, Virginia. The ladies of that city, through Col. O. V. Smith, have again asked for our floral assistance, that they may beautify the graves of their own and of our dead-for many North Carolinians are buried there. The memorial day is Friday, 17th, and all our citizens who can, are earnestly requested to send such flowers as they can spare to Mr. Bryan at the Express office, who will receive them up to ten clock to-morrow, Thursday, morning 16th, at which hour they will be sent forward by Express, free of charge. All persons, sending are requested to send with their donations a card with their names on it. We hope that this call will be liberally responded to.

The Cold Snap. The youth who annually makes the remark about "winter lingering in the lap of spring," can now step to the front. Thus far he has been debarred from this pleasure. Practically speak. ag, the exceeding coolness may be productive of bad results to our farmers. Conversing with one of these yesterday, he informed us that without speedy sun warmth the cotton which has been 'barred off" and consequently exposed, will doubtless be injured, while that which has been "sided up," more protected, is probably safe. The effect of the cold will be turn the cotton yellow, stunt its growth, or kill it. But these fears of danger are always prevalent among our farmers, often proving base-less. May they so be this time.

The Binghamton Iron Works. The reputation of these works is econd to that of none in the country. The quality of their work is superior, they possess every advantage of loca-tion, while the managers of the estab ishment have the completest acquain-tance with all the details of manufacture. Their engines, both portable and stationary, are of superior design and grates for engines, which are considered to possess great durability. They make South. South America and Asia have representatives in the school."

congines from one-horse power upwards. The works are at Binghamten, New York State.

Graphite Paint.

We noticed yesterday the painters at work rejuvenating the old Haywood house on Fayetteville street. Upon iaquiry we were told that the paint used, ties which render it valuable when so to be profitable

Secret of a Fair Face

In Itom of Interest to Every Lady who Desires to be More Beautiful than she now is. Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, sub-jected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a oure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called ipon to turnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

The Magnotia Balatian sure device for creating pure and blooming complexion.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, cotund, and plump. It makes a matron or so or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a atltivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conreals every drawback to beauty: and, while it is as harmless as water, it is so life-like in its effects that he closest observer cannot detect its use. Ladies who want to make themselves attractive an make an absolute certainty of it b an make an absolute certainty of it by using Hacan's Magnolia Balm, and we know of no other way.
